

MBEA

CHAPTER SPOTLIGHTS

Stanford BPA

Stanford BPA the National Leadership Conference in Orlando this year, and earned 3rd place in Virtual Web Applications. They were able to raise over $10,000 to fund their trip, which allowed all four students to attend without paying out of pocket. After returning from Orlando, they were interviewed for their local paper and had a 'free ice cream' day for their school to thank them for their support.

Hobson BPA

Hobson BPA did a "You've Been Flocked" fundraiser with plastic flamingos and had an awards presentation at the school assembly.

Helena Capital BPA

Helena Capital High BPA students promoted and recruited new members at the Activities Fair held at the school on May 25. Students and advisor participated as coaches and local program coordinators for Special Olympics track and field event.

Roundup BPA

Roundup BPA attended the National Leadership Conference in Orlando this past spring. They also created and published the football program for the Montana Class B All-Star game in June. This past May, they also developed a slate of officers to be voted upon when school starts. In July, they set up and cleaned up for a retirement party to give back to their local community.