Keynote Speaker—Patrick T. Grady

Patrick T. Grady

Patrick T. Grady has worked with over one million people nationwide in a vast variety of settings and presentations. With over two decades of experience as a speaker and trainer, his extraordinarily powerful presentations can help you and your people navigate your way through the maze of challenges we face in our organizations, corporations, associations and educational environments.

Using a high energy approach with clean and appropriate humor, stories and analogies as the catalyst for his message, Patrick will help you to develop skills that will dramatically impact how you deal with and implement your responsibilities. Utilizing interactive activities and real world examples, your audience will more than simply listen . . . they'll learn to take action NOW and gain breakthrough skills for leaders at every level!

Through his humorous and interactive presentations, Patrick assists participants in identifying the positives associated with our careers, he teaches attendees how to get out of paradigms that hold back creative thinking and develop new patterns of thinking that support innovation and new ideas.

Keynote: A Humorous Look at Personal and Professional Success

During this interactive, high energy and humorous presentation, Patrick T. Grady discusses the importance of leading others by example, the value of quality education and the power of CTSO's. As Career & Technical Educators we need enthusiasm, motivation and real life leadership skills that assist us to prepare both ourselves and our students for bright futures. Educating young people to step outside of their comfort zones, discover higher educational opportunities in CTE, college and the trades are vital keys to their success and growth as they create their futures.
